

International Seminar
on
Agricultural Structure and Agricultural Engineering
December 8th-9th, 2007
National Taiwan University, Taipei Taiwan, R.O.C.

INVITATION

The Organizing Committee is pleased to inform you that the International Seminar on Agricultural Structure and Agricultural Engineering (IS-ASAE) will be held at National Taiwan University, Taipei city, Taiwan, R.O.C. on December 8th-9th, 2007. This seminar is co-organized by the Society of Agricultural Structure, Japan, Chinese Institute of Agricultural Machinery, Taiwan, and the Department of Bio-Industrial Mechatronics Engineering, National Taiwan University.

It is our great pleasure to invite you to attend the international workshop on agricultural structure and food & agricultural engineering and present papers of your most recent works. The international seminar will provide a venue for ideas exchanges and information on the current research and technology developments in the field of agricultural structure and agricultural Engineering. Especially, this international seminar is planned as a venue for high activity of young researchers. Our hope is to bring fruitful meeting for all participants and also to facilitate an enjoyable visit in Taipei city and nearby areas

We are looking forward to meeting you at National Taiwan University, Taipei Taiwan, R.O.C.
